Dear Member,

The Unitarian Church in Oak Ridge is preparing for a rummage sale this coming Saturday with a silent auction as part of the sale which will include a kiln and potter's kick wheel. Bidding will start this coming Friday night and go through Saturday morning.

This pre-1961 electric kiln by Paragon comes with new uninstalled elements, a bucket of kiln furniture, and a kick wheel. All are available for silent auction at the Oak Ridge Unitarian Universalist Church. Inspection can be made from 6 to 8 pm this Friday, June 3 or 9 am to 2 pm this Saturday, June 4, when bidding will end promptly at 2 pm.

The church is located at 1500 Oak Ridge Turnpike.

If there are any questions contact
Kathy Seely at 865 300 6153

Andrea Wilson has a Leclerc loom and bench (used) for sale

I believe this is an "Artisat" loom, best I can tell from the Web site.

I purchased it approximately 20 years ago used. It works well, but I haven't used it in a very long time. Since I'm a printmaker and painter, I just don't have time to weave anymore.

- 4 harness
- 6 treadles
- missing the horizontal board on the castle top.
- I have several reeds that go with.
- selling the 38w bench with the loom.

It's a beautiful loom and I hate to see it not in use:

Give me a call if your interested. Thanks, Andrea.
